

The purpose of THE BRENDA BARBER MEMORIAL FUND is to honor her life and devotion to her community by providing scholarship(s) for graduating high school students and continuing students who are members of Carroll County 4-H Clubs and to make grants to nonprofit organization supported by Brenda Barber during her lifetime.

“Miss Brenda”, as she was affectionately known by all was well known, well liked and a respected farmer in Carroll County, Maryland.

Her special brand of patient and consistent leadership is a tragic loss to the farming community but most especially to Carroll County 4-H for which she worked tirelessly.

For over thirty years she was a leader of the Sam’s Creek 4-H Club but she also loved Civil War reenactments, raising honey bees, flower gardening and working the family farm.
