

The purpose of the KAITLYN TAYLOR MCDANIEL MEMORIAL FOUNDATION is to honor her memory and pay tribute to her by providing a scholarship for a graduating senior or continuing student from any Carroll County High School and making grants to causes of importance to her. Kaitlyn was pursuing her dream to become a Pediatric Nurse when her life was cut short in a fatal automobile accident.

Her kindness and compassion for others made for a perfect foundation to become a nurse. She academically pushed herself to achieve a high GPA. Kaitlyn was an organ donor and will live on through others. She would be honored to see others receive a nursing scholarship so that they could follow their dream, and to know her fund is helping others. Kaitlyn had a passion for soccer at a very young age. She continued this passion throughout her 4 years of high school and the 2 years she played in college. Kaitlyn enjoyed time with her family, friends, had a love of music and the beach.

When she was in 5th grade she wrote this poem that was published:

*"Sand sand everywhere
On my toes
And in my hair
The sound of waves hitting the shore
Washing away my footprints ever more"*
